

Metro Christian Life Week 2012

Leadership Application Process

Hello faithful leaders!

As we embark on another amazing year of Metro CLW camps, we again call out for leaders to come join the amazing journey that camping ministry is.

We have an exciting year in the planning and we would like anyone who feels called, to come be a part of the journey with us! Is this you??

We hope it is, because we are an entirely volunteer lead ministry and we truly appreciate the time, effort and commitment which you all give in support.

The application process for this year's leadership group is outlined below, so read through and send in your application ASAP!

It should be made known that anyone is welcome to apply to be a leader this year, leader approval will largely be based on camper-leader ratios, male-female ratios, and new/experienced leader ratios. We welcome ALL applications.

Big News Item # 1: Metro CLW is back to TWO CAMPS in 2012!
Camp#1 July 2-6, 2012 (Leader Training Day 24th June)
Camp#2 September 24-28, 2012 (Leader Training Day 16th Sep)

Big News Item #2: This year's theme for both camps is: "Do you have what it takes?"
Based around Deuteronomy 31:6 "Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid or terrified because of them, for the LORD your God goes with you; he will never leave you nor forsake you."
We will focus on courage, and how to be courageous in our faith, living as Christians in this modern world.

Leader Expectations:

We would appreciate your support in ensuring the following.

- Leaders must be present for the duration of the particular camp
- Be willing to attend and participate in specific camp leader training day(s).
- Have undertaken Childsafe Team Member training and participate in the leader approval process (new leaders). And hold a current National Police Clearance.
- Uphold CLW and promote to young people you are in contact with through local churches, schools, friendship groups.
- Support CLW in prayer.

Leader Considerations:

Please prayerfully consider your application

Reflecting on where you are currently in your faith and your walk with Jesus Christ, knowing that we are all sinners as no one is perfect; consider the things in your life obstructing your relationship with God. Will it be difficult for you to serve on CLW if your relationship with God is suffering? Only you and God will know if you are a suitable role model who God is calling to lead.

Christian Life Week is not just about a camp away from the world for a week. For young people it can be the start of something BIG. We would love you to make a continuing commitment to your small group, and other campers attending CLW in their lives. For some campers, CLW might be their only 'church' experience for the year, so it is vitally important for us to continue to minister to them throughout the years. We simply ask that you try to support them in a way which you can.

Finally, some wise questions to consider;

What difference do I want to make in the young people's lives on CLW and into the future?

Am I excited and passionate about the CLW ministry?

What are my gifts that I can bring, how can I use them for God's glory, how can they grow?

Do my actions, and will my actions reflect God's love?

What is my motivation for being a leader?

What are my fears about leading on CLW and have I discussed this with the directing team?

Am I growing in my relationship with God and my heart for the campers leading up to this camp?
